

CENTRUM VOOR WISKUNDE EN INFORMATICA

W3C Benelux Office

The Benelux Office of the World Wide Web Consortium offers a national contact point for W3C activities in The Netherlands, Belgium and Luxemburg. It is hosted by CWI, the national research centre for mathematics and computer science.

The W3C Office in the Benelux:

- ▶ promotes W3C Membership
- ▶ disseminates W3C results
- ▶ acts as a forum for the W3C Members in the Benelux and feeds back local input to W3C
- ▶ organizes tutorials and courses on recent W3C specifications, e.g. XHTML, SMIL and SVG
- ▶ hosts W3C Working Group Meetings
- ▶ issues a Newsletter and press-releases
