Deel dit bericht

The 10th Dutch national symposium on software engineering (SEN) will be held at CWI, Amsterdam on Friday 7th June 2024.

At this symposium we bring together the Dutch software engineering, programming languages, and formal methods community. SEN symposium is organized by VERSEN, the Dutch National Association for Software Engineering. The program will feature keynotes, invited presentations, contributed “lightning talks”, a panel discussion on Generative AI in SE.

We have the following confirmed keynote and invited speakers:

Massimiliano Di Penta, University of Sannio, Italy

Gabriele Keller, Utrecht University, the Netherlands

Petra van den Bos, University of Twente, the Netherlands

Andrés Goens, University of Amsterdam, the Netherlands

Maliheh Izadi, Delft University of Technology, the Netherlands

Friday 7 June

Centrum Wiskunde & Informatica (CWI)

Science Park 123
